

Korea Timed

Rolex car crash!!

Guy looks for his valuables after a serious car crash--

On the 11th day of October night, Mr. Kim, the former president of Company W, was in a big car crash involving multiple other trucks and cars, fortunately we are lucky that Mr. Kim was not seriously injured in his new Mercedes convertible. However, his car was shriveled up like a box of tissues. Once he came out of his car bleeding, rather than crying for the shock of the accident or rather being thankful that he is alive. He right away turned to his car whining in search of his Rolex watch. OH MY $$$ ROLEX--

Mr. Kim recently abdicated his position as a CEO of Company W. He said to his employees that this company shall never fall and still make millions of dollars even in the future. As the CEO of Company W for 30 years made him enormous amounts of money. He did not live like a public oriented rich person, but a rich guy who spends all of his money on himself. Simply, he enjoyed his life as a Billionaire. Even after his retirement he bought a $300,000 Mercedes in cash! His rich life style dates back to his childhood years, when he was born to a rich family line. So as we can see, Mr. Kim was spoiled back in the days, and it did not change now.

Real estate:

1: For people who are looking for a nice house by Gangnam this is the place. On the streets filled with coffee shops and Gucci stores. Its time for you to live in luxury-!

Price $100,000,000,000

Car for the rich

1: Are you still trying to fill up that gap in your luxury life? Or are you just gonna stay in your house and enjoy only the goods in your luxury house?

No-No-No. For you to really be notified that your rich by other people in Gangnam is to have the best car in your neighborhood. This car is Turbo X109 BMW

Get it!

Price:
$10Mill

KOREAN TSUNAMI OF PRIVATE ACADEMIES

Most of company CEOs have time to enjoy their hobbies. American president can also have time leisure. UN secretary general also has time of rest. But what is the real hard job in this world, CEO? President? UN? Its actually being a Korean elementary student. Korea is one of the top countries who spends most of their income on their children's private education. Most Koreans spend almost 40% of their household income on private lessons, and after school academy.

Kim Yu Na, who is 11 years old is currently attending "E" Elementary school in Korea. She starts the day off by preparing for school like the other kids. Her life seems pretty normal until that school bell rings that indicates that school ended. As soon as her school ends. Unlike most kids in America, she goes to an another educational academy. In Korea this after school academy is called, Hagwon. She attends to seven different Hagwons everyday including the weekends. We asked how she feels going to those various academies:

"My mom is only trying to set me up for a secure and a promising life. And even if I have to go through hell with these Hagwons, I would rather have a good future."

This is funny because this comment came from a child who is barely over her age of 10. She should have a mind set of socializing and messing around, rather than treating herself like a grown person.

MON, TUES, WEDNESDAY SCHEDULE OF KIM YU NA

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday
8:00 Morning: Waking up, Washing up	6:00-8:30 Morning clinic for Math	8:00 Morning: Waking up, Washing up
9:00 School time: Studies hard	9:00 School time	9:00 School time
3:00-7:00 Goes to Math Hagwon for 4hrs	3:00 - 8:00 For SAT and TOEFL for 5hrs	3:00-7:00 Goes to Math Hagwon for 4hrs
7:15-9:15 Goes to English Hagwon for 2hrs	8:15-9:00 is College planning tutor for 45min	7:15-9:15 Goes to English Hagwon for 2hrs
9:20-11:20 Goes to SAT Hagwon for 2hrs	9:00-11:30 Goes to English Hagwon for 2hrs and 30min	9:20-11:20 Goes to SAT Hagwon for 2hrs

"You can only become truly accomplished at something you love. Don't make money your goal. Instead, pursue the things you love doing, and then do them so well that people can't take their eyes off you."

- Maya Angelou